SMALLPOX IN VESSELS.

THE WESER AND THE POLYNESIA DETAINED AT QUARANTINE.

Children Passengers Found Afflicted With the Disease—Preparing for Cholera. Looking Over the Fields of Various Crops — Notes.

New York, June 8.—The steamships Weser, from Bremen, and Polynesia, from Hamburg, are detained at quarantine, owing to cases of smallpox among the passengers. The Weser arrived, having 1,046 steerage passengers, but none in the cabin. Three cases had developed among them, and the patients were sent to the Riverside hospital, at Blackwell's Island. No other cases have since developed among the passengers, as the original cases were promptly isolated. On the Polynesia, a case of smallpox was discovered the second day out, and another developed two days before reaching this port. Four more were detected by the health officers when they were examining the passengers, and the cases were all sent to the Riverside hospital. Another case was made of the passengers, and four additional cases were detected, showing incipient cases of the disease.

"Not all the cases are pronounced or aggravated," said Dr. Smith, the health officer, "but they are sufficiently pronounced to impart the smallpox to others if these cases were permitted to go at large."

"How long will you detain the vessels at quarantine?"

"Until it is shown that all danger of new cases developing has passed. All the passengers who had not been vaccinated were vaccinated at once, and the Weser will probably be able to leave here in a few days. The physicians of the North German line have always taken great precaution, and this case is possible. Another case was made of the passengers, and four additional cases were detected, showing incipient cases of the disease. The Weser arrived, having 1,046 steerage passengers, but none in the cabin. "Will you be able to care for the cholera as well?"

"We hope to, and every possible precaution has been taken so far. Different conditions are expected that will have to be met and the result will go to prove how far sanitary science is able to cope with these diseases in this country. There is no doubt about the cases in these vessels being smallpox."

A Short Crop.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 8.—The reports coming into the state agricultural department are undergoing examination as rapidly as possible, but so far they make no mention of the appearance of the Hesian fly in Illinois. Enough is seen to justify the belief that the condition of the wheat crop in general is worse than it was a month ago. A new pest called the root web worm is causing alarm to farmers in the west and other sections of the state. Reports from Madison and Green counties state many fields of corn have been destroyed by them, and Phil Warren, a large farmer in this county, reports the destruction of one hundred acres of corn by these worms.

The Outlook in Nebraska.

OMAHA, June 8.—Special crop reports received here from fifty principal points in the grain-growing regions of Nebraska show that small grain is in excellent condition, and a large yield of all varieties is expected. There is an increase of fully 25 per cent. in the acreage of corn as compared with last year, and the plant is growing vigorously. The winter wheat acreage is largely decreased, farmers preferring to sow their land to grass. The acreage of spring wheat, barley, rye and oats has increased about 10 per cent.

West Michigan Fruit-Growers.

MUSKOGEE CITY, Mich., June 8.—The West Michigan Fruit-Growers' society held a three-days' meeting in this city. Delegates were present from all important points in the fruit-growing districts. A number of papers relating to fruit-growing were read. Walter Phillips, of Grand Haven, president of the society, occupied the chair. The meeting is considered a success. From fruit-growers present it was learned that a very large crop of small fruit is anticipated. Strawberry yields will be larger than for several years past. Peaches will only be about half a crop.

Cotton and Corn.

ARKANSAS CITY, June 8.—Mr. J. Hughes, who resides at Fulton, Ark., on Bayou Bartholomew, some sixty miles below here, says there never was such a prospect for a large yield in the Bayou Bartholomew and Green River districts as there is this year. Corn and cotton are in fine condition and are being advanced in price. He reports that horseback fifty miles through this fertile farming region, and being a practical farmer himself, his opinion is well founded.

Hoppers by the Million.

CANO S CITY, June 8.—Myriads of young grasshoppers, evidently just hatched out in the warm sun, have made their appearance on the south side of the Arkansas River opposite this place. A swarm of probably two hundred acres is literally filled with young hoppers. It is said the insects are not the much dreaded locusts, and will be incapable of doing much damage.

Cut-Worms in the Corn.

ANDERSON, Ind., June 8.—In Madison county wheat is in good condition, with only a small quantity of the old crop in farmers' hands. The acreage is one-fourth less than in 1884. The yield will be about two-thirds of the usual crop. The corn acreage is one-fourth greater than in 1884. There has been a great deal of replanting, due to cut-worms injuring the young corn.

The Peach Crop.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 8.—Peach-growers are becoming uneasy at the great fall of young fruit, resulting from wet weather, and fear the crop will be greatly curtailed.

Strawberries in Wisconsin.

DELAVAN, Wis., June 8.—It is reported by many engaged in raising strawberries in this vicinity that there will be an immense yield this year, and the berries will begin to ripen in about ten days.

Wheat Fields Floated Up.

PEKIN, Ill., June 8.—A considerable wheat has been floated up in this section, it being in some places almost a failure, and corn put in instead.

The Cincinnati Official Hold-Ups are

BOUNCED OUT IN DISGRACE. CINCINNATI, June 8.—The bureau of Police Commissioners returned a verdict of guilty against Chief of Detectives Wapenstein and Police Inspector Dunn, charged with the notorious "silver drive," $100,000 from the McCloy party. Their uniforms will come off in disgrace immediately. The finding, which could not have been otherwise, gives universal satisfaction.

Freedom on Indian Soil.

FORT SMITH, Ark., June 8.—Following a recent proclamation by the governor of the Choctaw nation regarding registration of its constituents, that territory to determine their rights, etc., the registration began June 1, and a board of commissioners will be in session during the day, and the federal soldiers will August 1. Each freedman who registers may become a citizen of the nation and not of the United States. The commissioners are now at Scullyville, sixteen miles from here. They report large numbers of negroes reporting desiring citizenship. The registration is in accordance with an agreement between the United States and Choctaw and Chickasaw nations to settle state and freedmen in these countries. The Chickasaws are not complying with the agreement.

Tennessee Legislature.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 8.—The house of representatives adopted a resolution giving the Hermitage farm to the government as a home for veteran soldiers, and authorizing the governor to lay the matter before the proper authorities. The resolution provides that the house and tomb of Jackson shall remain intact; that members of Gen. Jackson's family and servants shall have a home there during life, and that the farm shall revert to the state whenever it comes to be used for a home for United States soldiers. The senate bill to provide for the settlement of the unfunded bonds of the extinct municipality of Memphis was passed by the house. The resolution directs an investigation of alleged open gambling in Memphis was rejected.

Fleeing Apaches.

DEMING, N. M., June 8.—The Indians who passed Duran Station, stole twenty horses and killed a man named Woods. A band of Indians passed near Hudson Station, going to the north, the telegraph operator says. The place says there were two bands going as they were two bands of hostiles, or perhaps they were two bands of Indians, he could not determine. The line of the Southern Pacific railroad is now thoroughly guarded to prevent any more Indian depredations. It is impossible to get information as to the number, as they have scattered in parties of two to six.

The Federal Fund.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The thirteenth course of the pedestal for the statue of Liberty is completed and the World's work is valued at $65,000. The amount of contributions now numbers 69,867. It will thus be seen that the contributions to this popular fund average less than one dollar a piece. Preparations are going on systematically for the reception to the statue, which will take place within the next ten or twelve days. No better welcome can be extended just now than is conveyed in the act of sending a contribution to the World's fund.

A Floating Gambling Hell.

CHICAGO, June 8.—There has been no open gambling in Chicago since the mayor's order went in force. All the houses are tightly closed. It is reported that Black Jack Taylor, recently released from prison, has taken a man on election day while acting as deputy marshal, will establish gaming on his "boom-boat," now anchored in the lake at the government pier out of the city's jurisdiction. To save interference by the United States officials, it is said, he will cast loose from the pier several drifts containing the harbor and dock, burning signals to indicate his location.

General Grant.

NEW YORK, June 8.—If Gen. Grant remains as well as he is at present, he will travel to Mt. McGregor on Tuesday, June 23. President Ratter, of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, has placed his special car at Gen. Grant's disposal for the use of the general and his family on the trip. The car will be attached to a morning express train from the Grand Central and will run to Saratoga, where a change will be necessary, because of the road to Mt. McGregor being a narrow gauge road. The general will be attended by his friends and Dr. Douglas.

Everett English's Escape.

TROY, N. Y., June 8.—Everett English, of Troy, N. Y., who was arrested for killing his boy by taking him to Louisa, and turning her out in a private family. He then returned to his home in Troy, and was held by him. They bought tickets at Schenectady for the west.

A $100,000 Life.

NEW YORK, June 8.—On the 15th of last May Norman B. Harwood, of Ormond, Fla., was thrown from his horse and died from concussion of the brain. The Equitable Life Assurance society has paid his widow $100,000, the amount of the policy on his life.

Discharged.

NEW YORK, June 8.—Augermier, suspected of the murder of Drug Clerk Hand, was discharged from custody, the judge holding the evidence not sufficient to warrant a further detention.

REVENUE COLLECTORS.

EIGHTY-FIVE OFFICES TO BE FILLED WITH NEW MEN.

The Army of Office-Seekers Still Marching on With Banners of Hope—A Wonderful District—Washington News and National Affairs.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—One half of the collectors of internal revenue have been changed. The number is eighty-five and the new appointees number forty-two. No appointments have yet been made in New York state and only one in Pennsylvania. It is, however, the intention of the president, as fast as good men can be determined upon, to appoint successors to the remaining thirty-three places. Mr. Max Welton, it is said of the treasury, is an applicant for his old place in New York city.

Six of the ten Democratic congressmen from Illinois are here in the interest of their constituents. They are Messrs. Morrison, Townsend, Egan, Nease, Ward and Riggs. The absentees, Messrs. Springer, Lusk, Lawler and McCarty, are expected here soon. Illinois' share so far has been commissions of pensions and the land office, and consul general to Vienna. Long Jones continues to drive the pay of the United States Marshal of the Northern district of Illinois, his reappointment since his commission expired having been made by Justice Harlan, as the law allows. The Chicago delegate, which is still working for Mr. McGarrigue, is not making headway, in getting Mr. Jones out of their man in it is said that the contest for the office has grown so bitter that in the interest of peace it will be necessary to select some one outside of Cook county for the marshaling. The postoffice at Quincy, Ill., is also in political hot water. The congressmen have a candidate, and Mr. Singleton, who formerly represented the district, wants the office. Congressman Townsend wants what it is to have a number of influential friends all wanting the same office. In each of the department, where the applications are filed, will relieve the embarrassed representatives by appointing somebody who is not in the race. With one exception the visiting statesmen from Illinois have a good-sold bodyguard of friendly constituents.

The exception is the Eighteenth district, represented by Mr. Cleveland. Who asked where his staff was he replied: "I do not suppose a constituent of mine has been in Washington since Mr. Cleveland was inaugurated. Certainly you cannot find one here now, and I do not believe the future will find one here." A Democrat from the Waterloo district in Washington.

"Not a general thing. They are mostly thy farmers, and a few of German descent. Alton and East St. Louis and Waterloo, my place of residence, are the only ones that have any more. I am sure the administration would be very glad if every congressional district minded its own business as well as the one I represent."

Conference of Charities.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—At the session of the conference of charities and correction, Gen. Brinkmeyer, of Iowa, read a short paper prepared by Harwick Baker, of Gloucester, England, on the most eminent authorities upon penal institutions in the world—the author of the Crofton system of classification of prisoners. The paper was entitled "The Police." The author sketched the steps in the progress of the police system from the time when a policeman's functions were limited to the maintenance of order and punishment to the present condition of things, when a policeman's most important duty is held to be the prevention of crime.

To Be Filled.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—A representative of the United Press has ascertained that the following diplomatic missions are yet to be filled by the president: Ministers to Italy, Spain, Belgium, Central America, United States of Colombia, Argentine Republic, Corea, Siam, Uruguay, and Paraguay; consuls general to Paris, Havana, Shanghai, Calcutta, Cairo, and the five second-class consular posts at Buenos Aires, St. Petersburg, Ecuador, and Constantinople.

The Dayton Collector.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Washington Post says: The collector for the Dayton district will, it is understood, be appointed next week; the collector for the Columbus district upon the return of Senator Payne, from Ohio, and the collector of the Toledo district last of all. The Dayton and Columbus districts have three and eighteen applicants respectively.

The Indians.

WASHINGTON, June 8.—Dispatches from San Francisco, N. Y., state that the war department. Gen. Crook and Schofield state the hostilities are again on the increase in the Indian territory. The Indians known to have been committed by the Indians number all in seventeen.

FIENDISH MOLLIE GRAHAM.

She Put Arsenic in Green Peas With Fatal Results.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 8.—Mollie Graham, a young woman, who is in the hospital, where city indictors sick are kept, was arrested on complaint of Dr. Hollowell, superintendent of the hospital. She says she poisoned Mary Ogilvie, the matron; Sarah Brown, one of the nurses; Fanny Clark and Florence Watson, patients, by putting arsenic in green peas served to them at dinner. The chief of the detectives ascertained Mollie Graham threatened to put Dr. Wood, head surgeon, to the hospital. She had colored her hair, out of the way because she said they spied on her and ran to Dr. Hollowell, superintendent, with tales about her. She made this threat to serve inmates of the hospital. The matron and Florence Watson will probably recover but Fannie Clark will die. It is said the arsenic was put in the peas which were intended for Dr. Wood's table. He did not eat them because he had grown tired of the vegetable. Mollie Graham is a white woman. She was arrested and tried for the murder of her negro husband, Prince Graham, last November and acquitted for want of sufficient evidence. Her husband was said to have been poisoned by Mollie with arsenic administered in a glass of beer. The woman is twenty-one years old, dissolute, but good looking.

SHERMAN AND ADAMS.

Their Reception and Speech-Making in Portland, Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—A public reception was tendered ex-Secretary Sherman and Charles Francis Adams, by the Portland board of trade and citizens. Mr. Sherman is the course of his remarks, alluding to the Oregonian canal as being of vital importance to the Pacific coast states, as well as the whole nation. He paid a glowing tribute to Oregon, its magnificent scenery and its great future, which promises to surpass anything he had imagined.

Charles Francis Adams in a brief speech spoke of his connection with the Union Pacific and its relations to the country, saying the road was extending steadily to its own cost; keeping out of politics and aiding the development of the resources of the West. He was surprised to find Oregon so a state of affairs, with a great crop nearly ready to harvest. He predicted that in the next ten or fifteen years the state would have one million inhabitants. The reception of the gentlemen was very cordial, and they will return to their homes with exalted views of the Pacific Northwest.

EDWARD HANLAN.

The Canadian Champion Talks of His Defeat in Australia.

CHICAGO, June 8.—Edward Hanlan, the champion, is now in Australia, where he was defeated by John W. Gurnea. He was joined here by Mr. Hanlan, and will remain several days. Of his successful rival, Beach, Hanlan says he is completely satisfied. The reception of the gentlemen was very cordial, and they will return to their homes with exalted views of the Pacific Northwest. "The first time I raced him," he said, "I was in the lead and he nearly swamped me. I fell behind and made a tremendous start. Ten strokes at such pace used me up and I went all to pieces. I was in no condition to row at that time. In the second race Beach won the choice of positions, and on the third he had taken the Paramatta river, that was good for three or four boat lengths. He absolutely declined to come over here and row me, so I'll have to take a four-oared crew back with me, say Tenner, Ross and Gaudaur. If each of them would put in $5,000 we could make some money over there."

POISONED WITH HONEY.

Three Children Die and Many Others Suffered.

BRANCKVILLE, S. C., June 8.—Mrs. Jacob Dukes gave a negro servant some honey, which the servant gave her four sons for dinner. Almost as soon as they had eaten it they complained of blindness and dizziness. In ten minutes one had died, and within half an hour the other three had died. Dr. Ott was sent for and by applying antiseptics the family was saved after great suffering. It is known other families who had been supplied with this honey were similarly affected, and it was only by energetic work that there were not more deaths. This event explains two other deaths which took place in this neighborhood on Monday. Examination of honey showed it was impregnated with goldsmiths from yellow jessamine, which has been the cause of many deaths heretofore of persons eating wild honey.

LAKE DISASTER.

A Sand-Laden Schooner Goes Down in a Gale.

CHICAGO, June 8.—The schooner Little Winlock left Port Clinton Tuesday evening laden with sand for Chicago. A terrific squall which came up a little before midnight nearly laid her to rest. She was driven into the Winlock was too deeply laden with sand to withstand the weather even if the precaution of having the sails down had been observed. Nothing is heard of her or heard of her, and there is no doubt she went down in the gale.

The carried a crew of five men, but with the exception of Capt. Hansen their names cannot be ascertained. They were all residents of this city. The Winlock must have gone down very close to land or some wreckage would have been picked up by passing vessels. The Winlock was known among the lake men as a "hooker" and was generally considered unsavoury.

HUMAN HOLOCAUST.

A Mother and Four Children Perish in Their Burning Home.

HARRIE, Ont., June 8.—The wife of John Wrench and four children were burned to death in their home in this town. The Wrenchs were too deeply laden with sand to withstand the weather even if the precaution of having the sails down had been observed. Nothing is heard of her or heard of her, and there is no doubt she went down in the gale. The carried a crew of five men, but with the exception of Capt. Hansen their names cannot be ascertained. They were all residents of this city. The Winlock must have gone down very close to land or some wreckage would have been picked up by passing vessels. The Winlock was known among the lake men as a "hooker" and was generally considered unsavoury.

FINIS.

The Kentucky Central Strike Ends and Strikers Released.

PARIS, Ky., June 8.—The strike is now officially ended here. The twenty-one leaders were released, petitioning the railroad authorities to release them on their own recognizance, pay them off all back-pay, and in these conditions obligated themselves to give up the strike. The officers of the road accepted their proposition, and promised them free transportation to any part of the state, not exceeding a distance of one thousand miles. The prisoners are now being released from custody.

As exchange says "it is now definitely settled that the oldest Old Man in the world is John Trevisor, of Falmouth, England, initiated August 6, 1805, while the oldest in America is Captain Sylvanus Hatch, of Port Lavaca, Texas, who joined the order in 1809.

Money is a drug in New York city. New York bank officials estimate that there is $61,000,000 lying idle in the banks vaults of that city alone, besides the many millions of Government money in the U. S. Treasury vaults. The reason for this is that money cannot be used to advantage in stock speculations, or for most business purposes. This excess of money indicates, stagnation rather than wealth. It is only when money is in demand, and is kept moving, that the country is truly prosperous.

A new enemy to corn has been found. Mr. Charles F. Mills, Secretary of the Illinois Board of Agriculture, reports the appearance of the root-web worm, an enemy to the growing corn. A field of one hundred acres of corn has been completely destroyed by it, so that it is now being replanted. Although working somewhat like the cut worm, it belongs to a different family. The stalk of the affected plant is found gnawed irregularly beneath the earth, sometimes wholly severed, as by a cut worm, but more commonly sacrificed or bored lengthwise, either superficially or through the center of the stalk. From one to eight or ten larvae are found in a single hill. The farmers of Illinois are very fearful of the result of its depredations.

The following well merited praise of the President comes from that staunch Republican paper, the Washington Sunday Gazette: "President Cleveland has thus far given the country a splendid administration, and none but a few extreme Republicans and a number of dissatisfied office-seekers will honestly deny the fact. The Sunday Gazette has been, and is now, a Republican paper. It has asked no favors of Mr. Cleveland or any member of his Cabinet, nor does it expect to. It aims to 'tell the truth,' and it does 'tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth' when it says that all indications point to the fact that Mr. Cleveland is an honest, upright, conscientious gentleman, and one whom a vast majority of the people now respect and honor as their President."

A Post-Election Opinion of Cleveland. [New York Sun.]

Do not agree with the critics of Mr. Cleveland. They have no right to measure him by their own standard, or to extract from him the smooth hypocrisy and deceitful manner of an ordinary politician. Mr. Cleveland is no bungler. False pretense is alien to his composition. There is a great deal of human nature about him, and though some may say that he thinks too much of himself and his own personality, no one disputes that he thinks honestly and speaks fairly what he thinks.

BANKING IN KANSAS.

One Bank Fails and Tries Unsuccessfully to Drag Another With It.

MITCHELL, Dak. June 8.—A few days ago the bank of Mitchell closed its doors, and the assignee is now ready to report, but the depositors are quarreling with the president for a settlement without the routine of the court. Huyson, cashier of the White Lake branch, when ordered to close his bank refused, and said he had no funds belonging to the Mitchell bank, but on the contrary the Mitchell bank owed the White Lake branch $11,000. He further stated that the money belonging to the White Lake depositors could not and should not be swallowed up in the failure of the Mitchell bank. On Saturday J. J. de Waal, attorney for the assignee, went to White Lake to take possession, and was informed that he could not enter the bank. He posted a notice that the bank was closed, but Cashier Huyson and Assistant Cashier Joe Ryan were on deck with their depositors and tore off the notice and proceeded to open the bank.

They posted guards at the entrances and cash paying off their depositors. Ryan took the cashier's window and Huyson opened the vaults and began pulling out the money and collaterals, whereupon Judge Welling leaped over the counter and ordered a halt. Ryan informed the crowd that a trespasser was inside the gate, and no sooner said the words than the store was pitched over the counter and out into the street. Mr. Huyson continued to settle with the depositors until the last one was paid in full. He then locked the bank, and is carrying the key in his pocket.

San Francisco, June 8.—Land jumping on a wholesale scale is in progress in San Bernardino county of the tract known as "Muscupia Ranch." In 1855 Mitchell White applied for a patent for the land. The tract was granted in 1873 for a tract of 30,000 acres or nearly six times the area originally asked for. The land has since been disposed of to a large number of small holders in lots of ten to fifty acres. It is very valuable, bringing as high as $300 an acre. The first of this month the United States entered a suit against White to set aside the alleged fraudulent patent of 1873. As soon as this became known a great number of squatters proceeded to take up homesteads on the disputed land until, by this time twenty-five square miles have been covered. White lives in Los Angeles, and his associates are in this city. The real sufferers are those who bought from White in good faith whose vineyards and fields are now being trampled down by pre-emptors.

White lives in Los Angeles, and his associates are in this city. The real sufferers are those who bought from White in good faith whose vineyards and fields are now being trampled down by pre-emptors.

San Francisco, June 8.—Land jumping on a wholesale scale is in progress in San Bernardino county of the tract known as "Muscupia Ranch." In 1855 Mitchell White applied for a patent for the land. The tract was granted in 1873 for a tract of 30,000 acres or nearly six times the area originally asked for. The land has since been disposed of to a large number of small holders in lots of ten to fifty acres. It is very valuable, bringing as high as $300 an acre. The first of this month the United States entered a suit against White to set aside the alleged fraudulent patent of 1873. As soon as this became known a great number of squatters proceeded to take up homesteads on the disputed land until, by this time twenty-five square miles have been covered. White lives in Los Angeles, and his associates are in this city. THE EVENING BULLETIN

ROSSER & McCARHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
To WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS
MONDAY, JUNE 8, 1885.

RIGHT to an office newly made,
A hungry and thin stranger strayed;
He peeped through the keyhole, lingering long,
As he chanted a strain from an old-time song,
And the sad words fell from his lips so thin—
"I want to get in! I want to get in!"

Close by the office fire seat sat,
A well dressed citizen, sleek and fat.
Soft was his chair as a throne might be,
But he mournfully played with the office key,
And sobbed, as he listened the stranger's shout—
"I'll have to get out! I'll have to get out!"

At present there is very little sickness of any kind in this city.

Mr. S. B. OLIVER is building a neat frame dwelling in Chester.

The corn in this county is looking very well, everything considered.

ROBERT LAGHLEY was killed by lightning at Cynthiana on Friday.

COLD blooded murder. Read Hech-inger & Co's, advertisement.

A TELEPHONE line from Germantown town to this city is again talked of.

THE moonlight fete on Poplar avenue,
East Mayville, begins this evening.

A GOOD rain fell here this morning, but there was very little at Washington.

MR. THOS. McDONALD has just finished a comfortable frame residence in Chester.

THE strike on the Kentucky Central is at an end and freight trains are now running as usual.

SUNDAY was the warmest day of the year, the mercury standing at ninety-eight in the shade.

THE Soldiers' Monument at Maplewood cemetery, near Ripley, is thirty-eight feet high and cost about $3,700.

MESSRS. HICKINSON & Co. announce elsewhere that the fun begins to-day.
They refer to the attraction offered by their cheap tables. Go and see the spread.

READ J. F. RYAN'S advertisement in this issue of the BULLETIN and if you want anything in the way of rubber stamp work give him a call. He guarantees entire satisfaction.

DURING the months of June, July and August the Mt. Carmel omnibus will make only three trips a week, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. After the period named daily trips will be made.

THE BULLETIN acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present at the commencement exercises of the Cincinnati Wesleyan College, on Wednesday evening, June 10th, at the St. Paul M. E. Church.

A PETITION asking Mr. Respass to remove the postoffice to Market street in the building adjoining the Central Hotel is circulating and has been numerously signed. Mr. Respass will enter upon his duties July 1st.

A CUTTING affair occurred Sunday afternoon between Paddy Parks and George Suns that resulted in the serious wounding of Suns. Parks is a son-in-law of Suns and the parties have not been on good terms since the former's marriage.
Suns was cut in the neck. Parks was arrested and is now in custody.

THE body of Charles Sheppard who was drowned on Wednesday evening the 3rd inst., was discovered on Sunday floating in the river opposite the residence of Mr. H. H. Collins, in Chester, by some one on the tow boat Sam Brown which passed down about noon. The whistle of the boat attracted the attention of Henry Bode and Martin Spencer who went out and secured the body, and took it to the Chester grade and later to the landing in East Mayville. An inquest was held by Coroner Cockerell and a verdict of accidental drowning rendered.
The remains showed marks of decomposition. The remains were buried at the cemetery the same afternoon.

THE following are the reduced rates to persons attending the State Teachers' Association at Lexington: L. & N. road on all lines, full fare going and one-third fare returning. Must have certificate of agent that full fare was paid going. No limit as to going or returning. C. & O. and S. W. same conditions as above except return tickets sold on President's certificate and limited to 5th and 6th, of July on return, no limit in going. Louisville and Evansville Mail Line boats same terms as C. & O. and S. W. R. R.
In all cases home agent's certificates of full fare paid going must be secured.
Let all who value public education be on hand at the opening exercises, 9 a. m., of July 2nd.

A Soldiers' Monument.

Inspired by the success of their comrades in Ripley, the members of Joseph Heiser Post, No. 13, G. A. R., have formulated plans for the erection of a memorial monument in our beautiful cemetery. The Mayville Cemetery Company has signified a willingness to give the "Kenton Mound" for the purpose, and the soldiers will show their appreciation of the liberal proposition of the Cemetery Company by erecting on the mound a magnificent structure. It is designed to be a monument not less than forty feet in height, to cost not less than $4, 000, the work to be completed and the monument to be unveiled on or before the 30th day of May, 1887. No interments will be made in the lot on which the monument stands. These are the main conditions, but the soldiers have in view a much higher and more costly structure than specified above.

At a meeting of the Post on Saturday evening, Messrs. Thomas A. Davis, John Heiser, M. C. Hutchins, Geo. M. Clinger, James Hefflin, M. McCormick, and Captain Jacob Miller, ex-officio, were appointed a committee to carry out the work. No time will be lost in perfecting plans, and our ever-generous citizens will be called upon to contribute to a noble cause and to aid in the erection of a memorial which will be a credit to its projectors and the pride of our city.
Mayville never does things by halves, and we feel sure our merchants especially will feel it a privilege to aid in this labor of love.

"Do the Spirits of the Dead Visit Us?"
We don't know. But we do know that some people who suffer from indigestion and impoverished blood have strange dreams, in which they see many unpleasant things. Sweet sleep is a blessing which comes with sound health and good digestion. Brown's Iron Bitters drives out indigestion and bad dreams, and gives health, good sleep and vigorous life. Life was a burden to Mrs. L. F.
Griffin of 37 Walker St., Baltimore, because of dyspepsia and bad blood, but she writes that Brown's Iron Bitters gave her relief.

Three times and out went she!
And a stout little tug towed her back into the slip.

With a box, melted jammer, jammed screw, broken shaft, slipped eccentric, collapsed flue, clogged nut-valve, cylinder head blown out, governor thrown off, safety-valve clogged, rudder unshipped d.

And her boilers' banding where her spunk-

In a Missouri court some time ago an illiterate person sentenced to jail till he could learn to write, and another was sentenced till he could teach the former the art. In a little over three weeks the prisoner re-appeared, able to write a fair letter at dictation, and both men were discharged.

PHELPS IN ENGLAND.

PRESS COMMENTS ON OUR MINISTER'S SPEECH-MAKING.

"An Acquisition to the Highest Social and Official Society of London"—Startling Reports—Clerical Lobbying—The Spanish Treaty—Notes

LONDON, June 8.—Minister Phelps' diplomatic debut is warmly commended by the London press. The following extracts give its average sentiment:

Says the St. James Gazette: "Americans, if not a nation of orators, are at any rate a nation of uncommonly neat public speakers. The new minister to whom is given the difficult task of filling Mr. Lowell's place is not an exception. He made an extremely felicitous little speech at the Mansion house."

The Globe adds: "Mr. Phelps, taken for what he is, without reference to his brilliant profession, is an acquisition to the highest social and official society of London. With delicate art he conveys, even in his modest acceptance of the welcome accorded to him as a compliment to his country rather than to himself, a subtle flattery and dignified sense of obligation."

The Echo concludes: "The new American minister made a decidedly good impression at the Mansion house when he delivered his first speech. Mr. Phelps has a good voice and smooth, graceful delivery."

Clerical Lobbying.

ROME, June 8.—Last week Dr. Walsh was surely archbishop of Dublin, and the intelligence thereof was semi-officially sent to ecclesiastics there, but it is learned now that there is every probability that Mr. Errington, the mysterious, is charming the Vatican into pleasing Mr. Gladstone and what the bishops here during the last fortnight called "the Castle party" by ignoring the nationalist wishes. The Pope's friends and advisers here say that he has not yet intrusted from Archbishop Crooke and the clergy, because they cannot persuade their flock to let political occasion schemes with the head of the church.

The Spanish Treaty.

MADRID, June 8.—Inquiries made in official circles contradict the statements published in London and Cuba that the negotiations of the American commercial treaty are nearly concluded and that it includes Spain and the Philippine Islands. Minister Foster has held conferences with the prime minister and the minister of foreign affairs. The negotiations are progressing, but no definite conclusion has yet been reached.

Cholera Panic.

NEW YORK, June 8.—The Herald's Paris correspondent claims to have private information that two fatal cases of cholera believed to have been imported from Valencia occurred at Marseilles on Thursday. To avoid a panic the fact has been kept secret. Orders have been issued from Paris for a strict quarantine cordon in the Pyrenees against the introduction of cholera from Spain.

Startling Reports.

LONDON, June 8.—Despatches received from Bombay and Calcutta state that it is currently reported in those cities that the annex of Afghanistan has been assassinated by some members of his suite while traveling in Persia. These dispatches have caused a decided sensation here. The government has telegraphed its officers in Afghanistan to ascertain at once whether there is anything in the reports.

The Dead Prince.

BERLIN, June 8.—Prince Charles Antoine of Hohenzollern, has been buried. The crown prince was present. The dead prince left interesting memoirs which will soon appear in book form.

Socialists Sentenced.

VIENNA, June 8.—The trial of the eight socialists in Sternberg, has been concluded. Four of the accused were acquitted. The others were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment.

The Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 8.—The czar will witness the maneuvers in Holland in August. He will then go to Skiernevice where he will reside two months.

Sir Peter Arrives.

LONDON, June 8.—Sir Peter Lumsden has arrived here. Interesting developments are expected.

The Loyal Legion.

ST. PAUL, Minn., June 8.—The military order of the Loyal Legion of the United States, commander of Minnesota, has been permanently organized here. Two hundred members of the order were present from different points in the United States. Among them was Governor Fairchild, of Wisconsin. The following officers were elected: Commander, Brevet Maj. Gen. John B. Sanborn, U. S. V.; Senior Vice Commander, Brevet Brig. Gen. L. F. Hubbard, U. S. V.; Junior Vice Commander, Brevet Brig. Gen. J. W. Bishop; Recorder, Brevet Maj. Gen. Q. White, U. S. A.; Register, Capt. C. W. Hackett, U. S. V.; Treasurer, Lieut. Albert Schaeffer, U. S. V.; Chancellor, Maj. G. W. Baird, U. S. A.; Chaplain, Rev. Edward D. Noll, U. S. A. In the evening a banquet was given at the Metropolitan. Telegrams of congratulation were received from Gen. U. S. Grant, R. R. Hayes and others.

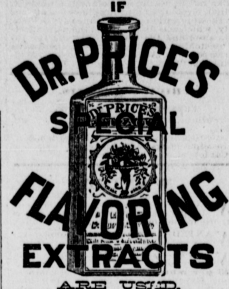

Seventeen Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The following dispatch has been received from the assistant adjutant general of the department of Arizona, dated June 5: "Gen. Crook telegraphed from Fort Bayard that the Indians were again moving south." Gen. Crook telegraphs the following direct from Fort Bayard: "From the best obtainable information the following number of citizens have been killed: Seven on Blue river and around Alma, five near Silver City, two near old Camp Vincent, three near Grafton. Turns may have been others killed, but I can get no reliable information."

Governor Hale's Failure.

BOSTON, June 8.—A special from Concord, N. H., to the Journal announces the failure of the Hon. S. W. Hale, who quitted gubernatorial chair of the state which he had held for two years. By great exertions Gov. Hale succeeded in tidling over his financial embarrassments until his term as governor had expired. He was heavily interested in various railroad and manufacturing enterprises.
